

Privacy statement

What you need to know

We collect and store information about your visits to our website. This information includes:

- The IP address of your machine when connecting to this site
- The domain name from which you are accessing the internet
- The operating system and browser your computer system uses
- Any search engine you are using
- Date and time you are visiting the URLs of the pages you visit

This site uses Google Analytics, a web analytics service provided by Google Inc. Google Analytics uses cookies. The information generated by the cookie about your use of the site is transmitted to, and stored by Google on servers in the United States. Google uses this information for the purpose of evaluating how you use this site, compiling reports on site activity, and providing other services relating to site activity and internet usage. Google may also transfer this information to third parties where required to do so by law, or where such third parties process the information on Google's behalf. Google will not associate your IP address with any other data held by Google. When you use this site you consent to the processing of data about you by Google, in the manner and for the purposes set out above.

You may manually disable cookies at any time. Check your browser's Help for details. This will not affect your ability to view the site.

Information we collect about you will not be disclosed to any other party in a form that will identify you.

Information held on the Register

Information about any individual in the New Zealand Insolvency Register is held, maintained and may be viewed in accordance with the Insolvency Act 1967, Insolvency Act 2006 and the Privacy Act 1993.

Registered Users

When you become a registered user of this website, personal information will be collected from you. This information is collected for two purposes. Firstly, for the management of your account with us. Secondly, for statistical purposes in determining the usage of this website.

If you do not provide the information requested when you attempt to register, you cannot become a registered user of this website. You may correct any errors in the information you have provided at any time.

Individuals calling our Business Service Centre

As part of our commitment to providing the best possible service to our customers we record all telephone calls answered in our Business Service Centre. This helps us to identify ways that we can provide you with a better service.

We record calls:

for staff training purposes, helping us to improve the quality of our customer service and to ensure the information we provide is consistent and accurate

so we can find ways to simplify our service to you, and to ensure we have an accurate record of your call, which may be needed to support any transactions that take place over the phone and/or if there is a dispute.

We understand your personal information is important and we are committed to protecting your privacy. We store the recordings securely for two years and destroy them after this period.

Unless we have lawful reason for withholding this information you can request access to a transcript of your call by phoning our Business Service Centre on 0508 467 658 and asking for the Privacy Officer.

Subscribers to Business Update

We take your privacy very seriously. Your contact details, collected during the subscription process, will only be used by us to send you relevant information. They will not be forwarded to other organisations and you can change your personal details or unsubscribe from Business Update at any time.